

Home Made

Have your cake, muffins, and tea biscuits home-made. They will be fresher, sweeter, more tasty and wholesome. Royal Baking Powder helps the housewife to produce at home, quickly and economically, fine and tasty cake, the raised-biscuit, puddings, the frosted layer-cake, crisp cookies, crullers, crusts and muffins, with which the ready-made food found at the bake-shop or grocery does not compare. Royal is the greatest of bake-day helps.

Jottings.

Demaux was in Decatur the week. Blake returned this week. The first rank in Maple Grove Monday evening. Lecture course—John R. of Paw Paw. His arrival held at the Catholic in Decatur. Communion at 8 p.m. on Sunday at 10:30. On Wednesday C. W. Young went to attend the merchant seamen at Washington. High society of Paw Paw chapter, charming evening. Work will be done by M. and M. E. degrees. Thomas and S. O. Keenyon were in the Rapids the forepart of the week. They reached Hartford Wednesday and found the railroad up, so they went around by way of the zoo to reach home.

Interesting meetings are being held at the Baptist church. Two meetings Tuesday evening. The severity of the winter has hindered the work. The great amount of sickness has hindered the work. There is no doubt that the meetings will be successful. Nelson presents the truth in a plain and earnest way. The objectionable methods of the past have been changed. The meetings will be successful. Following is the list of the week: "Sit We Here until We Die?" "Satan's Slaves!" Sunday: "He Remembers You!" 12 m. "The Christian Life." Mothers' meeting open to all. The Responsibility and Influence of Mothers." 7:00 p. m. "The Christian Life."

Today, we have been in the most severe storm and in the winter. The mercury was as low as 20 below zero Monday night and Tuesday night. These are the temperatures of the most severe localities. In most spots, the mercury registered five to eight below. On account of the very cold and winter up to this point, thought fruit has been ruined, although some damage has been done. The light has been so bad, so that many things have been ruined. Not a day has run over this division of the county since Monday afternoon. It is hoped to get the snow plow to go to the west, and it is hoped to get the snow plow to go to the west. This fact accounts for the county correspondence in the northern this week. Ed. The feet quite severely frozen the trips with mail from Law. an "open winter," this is a "cooker." Everybody will be the advent of spring, even the man, who has certainly gotten it with the heavy deliveries in the weather this week.

Obituary.

James Bennett, one of the pioneers of this vicinity, died at his home yesterday morning of a complication of diseases, aged 65 years, one month and eight days. He was born January 9, 1840, at Canterbury, Conn. In 1856 he went to New York, where he enlisted in the army. Co. H., 8th N. Y. Cav., in 1861. He was discharged in 1865, after serving 10 months in Andersonville prison. November 10, 1869, he was united in marriage to Martha A. Chase. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett came to Michigan 30 years ago and settled on a farm in Gliddenburg, six miles north-west of Paw Paw, where they remained until the fall of 1902, when they moved to this village, and Mr. Bennett has been in poor health since that time. He was an honest, upright man and an ideal citizen and these qualities have won him many friends who are left to mourn with a wife and four children, Mrs. Cora M. Cole of Gliddenburg, Dr. C. L. Bennett of Goberville and Bert E. and Eber J. Bennett, who still remain at home. Funeral services will be held at the late residence Sunday at 11 o'clock, Rev. Linderman officiating. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. will have charge of the services. Interment will be at Prospect Hill cemetery.

Miss Jennie Charlotte Ackerman was born at Pillarpoint, Jefferson county, N. Y., July 19, 1831, and died at Paw Paw, February 7, 1905. She was a graduate of a New York normal school at Albany. She taught school two years in Wisconsin before her union in marriage with the Rev. Hiram M. Church, May 19, 1857. Two sons were born to them, Geo. W. of Paw Paw, and Hiram L. of New Orleans, La. She became a Christian in her youth and united with the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Church proved herself called of God to be the helpmate of one of his most faithful servants, and for 42 years they together traveled the circuits of the Black River and northern New York conferences with great efficiency. She was especially interested in the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary societies, having been district president for a long time. On account of failing health Brother Church took a superannuated relation in 1898 and moved to Chicago, Ill., where they lived with their son George four years, coming to Paw Paw three years ago. She leaves a husband, two sons and a host of friends to mourn. The funeral was held at the late home and the body will be laid to rest in the family lot at Theresa, N. Y.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 34 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies as all others are mere imitations. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that, when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead unless you take the proper medicine for your disease as Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but I Electric Bitters I found just what I needed for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Any wishing it sent by mail can have it by making the request and sending three cents in stamps to cover postage. Those not subscribers can buy a copy for 25 cents. m

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy, says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child (nursing) is subject to severe attacks of croup, and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Longwell Bros. m
